UVSC Class on Retirement and Investment Strategies Begins May 24

OREM, Utah—UVSC Community Education will offer “Investment Strategies Before and After Retirement” on Wednesdays from May 24-June 7 from 7 to 9 p.m. at UVSC West at 951 S. Geneva Rd. in Orem. The class will be taught by Sterling Hanson, a 19-year veteran financial consultant and 1st Vice President of RBC-Dain Rauscher. Mr. Hanson has been teaching on investment strategies since 1997.

Whether you are retired, or retirement is 40 years away, the principles of sound investing and financial planning never change. In this course, students will learn investing guidelines such as information on markets, stock analysis, bonds, mutual funds, asset allocation, annuities and international investing. The class will discuss strategies to provide for a lifetime of secure, reliable income that keeps up with inflation.

The cost of the course is $39 and spouses may attend free. UVSC Community Education is part of the School of Continuing Education. For more information about classes go to www.uvsc.edu/communityeducation or call Vicki at (801) 863-8011.
