

RESOLUTION ON EDUCATING FOR DEMOCRACY

10 November, 2004

WHEREAS, we recognize that civic and service learning are essential to the well-being of our representative democracy and should be a central purpose of K-16 education; and

WHEREAS, we understand that civility, respect for the rights and viewpoints of others, and civic responsibility are vital in our representative democracy; be it therefore

RESOLVED, that we will help instill in K-16 students the desire to become engaged citizens endowed with the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and confidence to participate fully in democratic life.
