

JERRY DAY

Jerry Day helps coordinate marketing and design for Student Life departments and Student Center auxiliaries including: Student Government, UV Clubs, Volunteer and Service-Learning Center, Student Health Services, Judicial Affairs, Outdoor Education, Intramurals, Campus Bookstore, Dining Services, Campus Connection, Post Office, Scoops, and the Ragan Theater. Jerry has worked for UVU since 1998.

"My teaching philosophy revolves around my love of art. Regardless of what subject I am teaching, my primary goal is to help my students gain a greater appreciation of art. I believe that an understanding and appreciation of art helps us to appreciate creativity, beauty, and expression in many areas of our lives."

He is also a freelance artist with such clients as: Fresh Choice Produce Inc., D'Arrigo Brothers Co., Reggie Jackson, Nebo School District, Envision Utah, Sundance Resort, Salt Lake Radio Broadcasters Association, and Thanksgiving Point.

Jerry will be teaching Introduction to Visual Arts on Friday evenings from 5:30 p.m. to 9:50 p.m. in the Gunther Trades Building for Summer Semester 2008.

Introduction to Visual Arts (ART 1010) is an introductory class that offers General Education credit for Fine Arts.

In this course, students will develop an appreciation for art and be able to identify major art forms, survey art history and become a critic to art and media.
