

Question: My U: and S: drives are not showing up in My Computer.

Answer: 1. Log off or Restart Computer by clicking start, shutdown, or Log off username

2. At the Novell Login screen make sure the Workstation only check box located below the username and password fields is not checked.

3. Login with your username and password

4. Network drives are now available